WHAT IS THE CCCF?

The Chase County Community Foundation is a philanthropic organization established and operated as a permanent collection of various funds for the long-term benefit for the citizens of Chase County.

WHO BENEFITS?

The CCCF's funds exist to improve and perpetuate the quality of life for all of the residents of Chase County. With all of the uncertainties of the future, it is comforting to know that there will be funds available to meet those unknown charitable needs of Chase County.

WHAT ARE FUNDS USED FOR?

The CCCF will make grants for innovative and creative projects and programs that are responsive to changing community needs in the areas of health, social service, education, recreation, and cultural affairs.

WHY THE CCCF?

The CCCF is a local organization which provides donors with the opportunity to build tax-advantaged endowment funds that grow and benefit our own community and a broad range of charitable interests.

HOW IS THE CCCF MANAGED?

The CCCF has a seven-member advisory board composed of community and charitable minded individuals. The money that comes from Chase County goes to projects solely in Chase County. It is the responsibility of the advisory board to meet the charitable needs of our community; Chase County.

TYPES OF GIVING

- ★ DESIGNATED GIFT
A gift may be made to establish a fund with the income or corpus, or both, to be distributed to a named organization for a charitable purpose, and will serve to benefit that organization anywhere in the world.
- ★ FIELD OF INTEREST GIFT
A gift may be made to establish a field of interest, such as "elementary education" or "performing arts." The CCCF, through its advisory board and with the cooperation of its grant committees, directs the gifts from that fund to the stated field of interest.
- ★ DONOR-ADVISED GIFT
A donor may make a gift to establish a fund and provide that the donor--or a person designated by the donor--may advise the use of the income or the corpus, or both, from that fund.
- ★ UNRESTRICTED GIFT
A donor may make a gift without restriction for its use, in which case the advisory board may use the fund for the purposes of the CCCF as it sees fit.

Serving the future of Chase County, now and forever.
