

Don E. Grant Memorial Scholarship for Excellence in Music Application

Don Grant served as the choral director at Emporia High School from 1967-2004. He dedicated his life to music and music education and inspired countless others to do the same. This scholarship was created following his death in December 2020 to further his legacy by assisting a graduating senior who intends to pursue a career in music or music education.

The deadline to submit this application is April 3, 2023.
